GOVERNOR TED SCHWINDEN

TED SCHWINDEN, has served Montana in the state Legislature, as a department head and as Lieutenant Governor. He was first elected Governor in 1980 and re-elected to a four-year term in 1984. Born in Wolf Point, Montana, on August 31, 1925, his formal education began in a rural one-room school. After graduating from Wolf Point High School in 1943, he enlisted in the U.S. Army. He was honorably discharged as a Staff Sergeant in 1946. Governor Schwinden attended the Montana School of Mines in Butte and the University of Montana in Missoula, where he received a B.A. in 1949 and an M.A. in 1950, both in history and political science. From 1950 to 1954, he did post-graduate work at the University of Minnesota. He has owned and operated a grain farm in Roosevelt County since 1954. In 1958, Governor Schwinden, a Democrat, was elected to the Montana House of Representatives from Roosevelt County. He was named to the Legislative Council from 1959 to 1961 and served as House Minority Whip during the 1961 Session. In 1965, he was elected to President of the Montana Grain Growers Association (MGGA), a position he held for two years. In 1968, Schwinden was selected by U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman to represent the United States on a wheat trade mission to Asia.

In 1969, he was named by Governor Forrest Anderson as Commissioner of State Lands. Reappointed by Governor Tom Judge in 1973, he served until April 1976, when he resigned to become a candidate for Lieutenant Governor. In 1983, he was appointed to the chairmanship of the Western Governors' Conference (WGC). In July, 1984, Schwinden was named to an unprecedented third term as chairman of the National Governors' Association (NGA) Committee on Agriculture. Most recently, Schwinden was named to head a special NGA task force on long-term agricultural policy. Governor Schwinden married the former Jean Christianson, a registered nurse, in 1946. They have three children, Mike, Chrys, Dore and three grandchildren, Jordan, Erin and Nicholas.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR GEORGE TURMAN

GEORGE TURMAN was born and raised in Missoula. He graduated from the University of Montana in 1951 with a B.A. in Economics. He served in the U.S. Army from 1951 to 1953 and received the combat infantry badge as a result of his service during the Korean War. Turman spent ten years with the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco in the Seattle and San Francisco offices. During that time, he headed various administrative departments and participated in economic research activities. In 1965, he returned to Missoula where he was a businessman for several years. Lt. Governor Turman's career as a public official began in 1970 when he was appointed Mayor of Missoula. He subsequently was elected to the Montana House of Representatives. As a Representative in the 1973-74 Legislature, he served on the Local Government and Labor and Employment Relations Committees. He also was a member of the Select Committee on Wild and Scenic Rivers. From 1974 to 1980, Lt. Governor Turman served as Public Service Commissioner from District Five and was a member of the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners. Elected Lt. Governor in 1980, Turman was re-elected in 1984.

In 1951, Lt. Governor Turman married Kay Hager. They have five children, Marcia Barlett, Linda Madsen, Douglas, John and Laura, and three grandchildren, Jason, Leslie and Britt.
